

INDIGENOUS STUDENT OUTREACH INITIATIVE

Are you interested in a career or job in the federal public service? If so, the Indigenous Career Navigators can help!

The Indigenous Career Navigators Program can help Indigenous post-secondary students and recent graduates join the federal public service.

What can Indigenous Career Navigators do for you?

- Provide career advice and guidance.
- Help you:
 - map out your career path.
 - understand how staffing processes work and how to succeed at them.
 - draft your resume and cover letter.
 - prepare for interviews and exams.
 - create your learning plan.
- Provide you with information on Indigenous career development and learning programs in the federal government.
- Sharing your resume with hiring managers.

COME WORK WITH US!

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Applicants must either be:

- a current First Nation, Inuk or Métis post-secondary student, or
- a newly graduated Indigenous student.

Act now! Get connected with an Indigenous Career Navigator by contacting crtc-itrc@sac-isc.gc.ca

Government of Canada

Gouvernement
du Canada

Canada