When Nogdawindamin meets with a family, a Family Preservation Worker can provide assistance and support to children and families to resolve child welfare crisis and co-operatively plan and carry out actions designed to divert future and/or similar crisis. The Family Preservation Worker functions within legislative requirements, regulations, policies and procedures and the Mission, Beliefs and Vision of Serpent River First Nation and contributes to the accomplishment of the strategic priorities.

DUTIES:

Provide support and advocacy to families during child welfare investigations, following the Nogdawindamin/Community protocol;

- Participate in the provision of afterhours and on-call services;
- Provide advocacy and liaison services to promote and support client's effort with external agencies and service providers to address service needs of the family;
- Work collaboratively with the other Family Preservation Worker/Band Representative;
- Engage families in a way that empowers them to move towards a more holistic lifestyle;
- Provide case management to ensure a coordinated and cooperative strategy in response to the child welfare needs of clients;
- Meet jointly with the family and referral sources to clarify areas of responsibility and work on identifying goals together;
- Develop a service plan with the family on goals and objectives that are concrete, attainable, and relevant to the concerns that led to the referral to the program;
- Assess families to identify areas of strengths as well as those that require intervention;
- Monitor and assess changes that occur in family situations.
- Ensure regular case conferences are held with the family and other service providers;
- Develop and maintain professional working relationships with community resources, service providers, and groups;
- Monitor and maintain regular and on-going communication with service providers to ensure families receive quality services;
- Ensure documents are completed as required.
- Ensure confidentiality forms are completed for all clients;
- Complete documentation according to First Nation and Ministry standards;
- Ensure evaluations and follow-up is completed once service has been completed and case closed;
- Ensure all required information is data entered into the CIMS database as required.
- Represent the collective interest of the Serpent River First Nation
- Collaboratively ensure a culturally appropriate disposition of each case
- Liaise with other First Nation Band Representatives, Agencies and Legal Council
- Prepare, respond to and process legal documents, as required, by the Ontario Court rules
- Prepare plans of care, including recommendations for placement of children
- Represent the First Nation at court as a Party of Child Welfare proceedings
- Make presentation to the Chief of Serpent River First Nation concerning individual Child Welfare cases and follow through with recommendations
